Oliver more of a Masterpiece than a musical!

(153 minutes : UK : 1968 : cert U)

Ron Moody, Shani Wallis, Peggy Mount, Oliver Reed, Hylda Baker, Mark Lester.

Oliver Twist (Lester) is sold to a Dunstable undertaker after scandalising the owners of his orphanage home by asking for more dinner. He escapes to London and meets Fagin (Moody), who wants him in his gang of child pickpockets. When a kindlier gentleman takes him in, Oliver's luck seems to have changed - but not for long. Fagin's protegee Bill Sikes (Oliver Reed in a memorably nasty role) has it in for him - and Sykes' kindly girlfriend Nancy (Wallis) only gets in the way.

With fabulous songs like Food Glorious Food, You've Got to Pick a Pocket or Two and Consider Yourself, you'll find it impossible not to sing along...

'a hugely enjoyable, brilliantly acted and extremely moving romantic drama'

The Time Traveller's Wife

(107 minutes : USA : 2007 : cert 12A)

The time-defying love story of Henry and Clare.

A devastating car crash triggers a peculiar condition for Henry (Aussie action star Eric Bana: Black Hawk Down, Troy), which causes him to travel through time more or less randomly. To help cope with his unpredictable and terrifying escapades, Henry keeps in top physical shape and learns such survival skills as pickpocketing, street fighting, and picking locks. He always goes back to his 'present', but is unable to control his future. When he meets Clare (Rachel McAdams: Mean Girls, The Wedding Crashers), little does he realise that they've met before in another dimension, and that she's been waiting for him most of her life... intriguing, moving and action packed.
